MISSISSIPPI HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TOURISM COMMITTEE HEADED TO THE DELTA!

The Joint Tourism Committee toured the Mississippi Delta with Representatives and Senators traveling to Clarksdale, Greenwood, Indianola, and Cleveland to experience the region's tourism assets and see the Delta's culture and history firsthand.

The House Public Health & Human Services Committee, chaired by Rep. Sam Creekmore, and the Senate Public Health & Welfare Committee, chaired by Sen. Hob Bryan, held a joint hearing on infant mortality. Committee members heard from experts on ways to reduce infant deaths and improve outcomes for Mississippi mothers and babies.

The Mississippi Artificial Intelligence Task Force, chaired by Representative Jill Ford, met to hear from speakers on how artificial intelligence is shaping education, healthcare, and daily life.

Speaker Jason White and fellow Representatives attended the grand opening of Toyota Mississippi's new Children's Learning Center!

FAITH, FAMILY, and MISSISSIPPI

Hosted By Representative Stacey Wilkes

Rep. Stacey Wilkes has announced a new weekly, hour-long podcast with Supertalk Mississippi, bringing discussion, insight, and Mississippi stories to listeners across the state.

Rep. Kevin Felsher participated in the Leaders Against Litter event with the Harrison County Beautification Commission, supporting local efforts to keep Biloxi clean and welcoming.

Reps. Fabian Nelson and Justis Gibbs were in Washington, D.C. attending the Rising Star Award Ceremony with the Future Caucus.
